3. Mailing Operations

Two more letters were received from Polish contacts distributing the INFORMATION BULLETIN to friends in the Ukraine. These letters acknowledge receipt of the INFORMATION BULLETIN, requesting that additional copies be forwarded and stating that "those at home" anxiously read this information.

4. Brussels Fair

During his stay in Brussels, ARKADYANEC-27 authored a leading front-page article in the Brussels daily LA LIGNE BELGE of 21 August 1958, titled "Russian Colonialism at the Brussels Exposition," exposing the rigid imperialism underlying Soviet pretenses of representing a federated union of "sovereign and independent" republics.

ARKADYANEC-27 is expected to arrive in New York from Brussels on 1 October. A meeting is planned at which time he will report on all ARKADYANEC activities at the Fair. He submitted a written report to the case officer in Munich on his activities through early September. This report is being awaited from the Field.

With the departure of ARKADYANEC-27 from Brussels on 23 September, most of the ARKADYANEC activities have ceased. A young Ukrainian woman and a Ukrainian defector from Poland presently located in Brussels are continuing the distribution of the INFORMATION BULLETIN to Soviet tourists.

EVALUATION OF EFFECTIVENESS

Soviets continue their attacks against the Ukrainian emigration. The No. 10, 1958, issue of UKRAINA carried an article by A. KORACHENKO stating that Ukrainians in New York do not enjoy their own Ukrainian language press. This statement was refuted in PIREX, Type No. 77 in which it was stated that the Ukrainian language newspaper SVOBODA was celebrating its 65th year of publication. An article in the first issue of the Soviet Ukrainian language magazine VSE SVIT told about the struggle of the Ukrainian emigration with under Western capitalism.
